

August 5th - August 7th Pat & Webb's 4624 E. Barothy Rd Custer, Mi 49405

We are so excited to again host the annual GRCOC fellowship/camping weekend and church service here in Custer. We are located 100 miles from Grand Rapids so please allow travel time. We have 10 acres of property located in a beautiful country setting within walking distance of the Pere Marquette River. Also located only 20 miles from Lake Michigan beach. Come for any part or all of the weekend beginning Friday evening through Sunday:)

Campers and tents are welcomed. Port-a-Johns are provided. For those who want to attend and do not have tents please let us know as last year we did have extra tents available for use. There is shelter available if we have inclement weather. It is Michigan so please come prepared for the weather - bugspray (we live in a wooded area) sunscreen and jackets (chilly in am/pm)

We have a grill available for you to use. We also have picnic tables - please bring lawnchairs to use .

We have various activities for the kids a small pool (so please bring swimsuits) a go-kart , two small battery operated cars, a swingset and a sandpile.

For the adults we have horseshoes - badminton - games.

Please bring food and beverages for the weekend. Last year we ran out of drinks so we have a big cooler to use this year so feel free to bring drink mixes - (i.e. lemonade) for the large cooler. We will have a campfire so feel free to bring Smores ingredients. Webb has a giant skillet for the campfire and gets it out in the morning - so bring your breakfast items to throw in the skillet (bacon/eggs/sausage). Last year we also made pancakes for breakfast. We have a large coffee pot and also a refrigerator for any items you need to refrigerate.

On Sunday after the church service for everyone we prepare a Hobo stew dinner cooked over the campfire. This meal consists of Polish Sausage/Kielbasa, potatoes, carrots, sweet corn and cabbage. If you want to bring something for Sunday dinner please bring desserts or bread/roll items to go along with the dinner.

If you have any questions please e-mail thorn.patricia@gmail.com or call 1-231-757-3846 .

So excited to host this annual event and to see everyone:)

Hugs/Love
Pat & Webb
